SCHOOL CENSUS. Section 10 of the School Law says that "annually, within sixteen days after the fourth day of July, the Board of Education shall cause to be taken an enumeration of all the youths between the ages of aix and twenty-one years, resident in each election district of the District," etc.

For the porpose indicated in this section the Board has, for two years, divided the city into two districts, Washington, Madison, Clay and Union constituting the first, and Centre, Webster and Ritchie the second district. Going to Weet Virgoinia.—Harry Huston, alias "Spooney Buller," not the strabismal investigator, has had a varied experience of late. Some days ago he was sent to Claremont by Mayor Liddell, as a suspicious character. Yesterday morning he was brought into Court on a habeas corpus granted by Judge Bailey and discharged, the commitment being defective. While going out of the Court room, Sheriff Tingle, of Wheeling, West Virginia, quietly impeded his progress, and exhibited a warrant for his arrest on a charge of being connected with "Punch" Long and "Curly Jack" in the robbery of a house. "Spooney" made agaliant fight, and the Sheriff was forced to call to his GRADUATING CLASS.

Four successive Wednesdays have been devoted to the work of examination. The graduating pupils were all brought together and examined in presence of each other, and of their Principals. They have patiently submitted to the lengthened test, and have established their right to receive the diplomas awarded by the Board. The following is the roll of the class arranged alphabetically: Emma Baron, Mattle Crowther, Rida L. Dean, Robert H. Devine, Mary L. Good, Annie Holliday, Annie Joyent, Eliza C. Otte, Georgia Pender, Molite B. Richardson, Clara Sadler, Emma Steele, Emma Turk, John Thompson, Emma Waterhouse, Jessie Wicard, Alonzo D. Wheat. This is the first class that has ever been sent forth as graduates of our public schools under the sanction and by the authority of the Board. For this reason every step has been carefully taken so that the presented that the presented. voted to the work of examination every step has been carefully takes s that the precedent, at this time estab lished, may be healthful in its influence inset, may be healthful in its influence upon succeeding classes. For this reason also the class has cordially cooperated in every suggestion, the purpose of which was to avoid doing anything that would entail unnec essary expense upon those following in their steps. Accordingly the lady members of the class expect to present themselves, dressed in calico, upon the occasion of their public graduation on Thursday evening, June 27th. As classes are likely in the future to offer themselves annually for the reception of diplomas, I would recommend that a suitable book be procured, to be used as a register of graduates, in which all items, relating to each class and useful for information, may be recorded. Respectfully submitted,

JOHN C. HERVEY, Sup't.

The police should pay some attention to the obscene literature which was distributed among the crowd at the lower market on Tuesday morning. It is thought that the matter was printed by some of the boy. The petition of Mrs. Elizabeth Lowery, who run cheap job printing presses in the city.

The Committee on Rules and Regula-ions reported that they had 1,000 diplo nas printed by Messrs. Frew & Campbell at a cost of $30, and were of the opinion at a cost of $500, and were of the opinion that "they are equal to, if not better, than the samples obtained from the lithograph-ers," which could not be procured from them at a cost short of from $100 to $125. The report was adopted. Adjourned.

Who Was IT?—It is hard to believe that we have among us any man or class of men who would deliberately set a trap for the lives of their fellow men. It is true, however, as instanced in the dastardly act committed several nights since at Meesrs. Armstrong & Co.'s ways at the old boat yard. They had a barge on the ways taken out for repairs. The hoods were lifted off the drums around which the lines used in drawing out the boats and holding them on the ways are coiled, and the lines deliberately cut almost through. This was not discovered until some time after the men had been at work on the boat the next morning. If there had been any repairs to be made on the bottom of the boat it would have been under the bottom. There are a hundred chances to one that in jacking up the boat the lines would have partied and the boat the rines would have partied and the boat the prese would have partied and the boat the rines would have prompted the set is at present unknown. All indi-WHO WAS IT?-It is hard to believe under it would have been killed. What revengeful motive could have prompted the act is at present unknown. All indications, however, point to a design upon the employers rather than upon the employers, as if it had been otherwise there would not have been such care to hide the work, and pecuniary damage to a much greater extent could easily have been done to the employers without danger to their workmen. It is to be hoped that Messrs. Armstrong & Co. will succeed in ferreting out the perpetrators.

New Music,—Among the successful pieces of new music, a ballad by S. G. Pratt entitled "Stay at Home, My Heart, and Rest," is attracting the attention of lovers of good vocal music. The words are by Longfellow; and of the music, it is enough to know that the celebrated prima dona, Marie Roze, has added the song to her repetoire. While it contains some difficulties, "Stay at Home, My Heart," is not out of reach of most amateur singers; and once learned, it will not be laid aside, as it is one of the kind that are born for more than a short-lived popularity. Price, 40 cents. Another pretty song but easier and of lighter character, is "Mabel Grey," by E. J. Salt, This has a good chorus, and will please for parlor entertainment. The words are sentimental, and the title page handsomely illustrated. Price 40 cents. Of instrumental pieces, the "Glide Walts," by L. George, may be recommended to amateurs of the ordinary attainments. It has a pretty melody, Towing movement, and the time well. recommended to amateurs of the ordinary attainments. It has a pretty melody, flowing movement, and the time well marked, and is not difficult. Price, 30 cents. All the above are published by John Church & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, who will send either or all of them to any address, post paid, on receipt of marked price.

TEMPERANCE NOTES.—There will be a temperance meeting at Parkers' Hall to-night. Mr. Robert Marshall and others will speak. This Union on last Wednerday evening elected the following officers: President, J. M. Dowler, Vice President, Miss A. Taylor; Second Vice President, Samuel Craytor; Tressurer, A. G. McNash; Secretary, Joseph Parker; Executive Committee, Ben. Stephens, George Hartley, W. Morrison, Ed. Murns, C. H. Belliville.

Considering the heat of the weather there was a very fair audience at Mozart Hall last night, all of whom no doubt went away gratified at hearing Mr. F. Grubb's interesting and instructive adress. Mr. Grubb spoke at considerable length, and his reasonings were of that earnest kind which it does one good to listen to, knowing that he fully means TEMPERANCE NOTES.-There will be

Ma. Henny Miller, Fish Commissioner, got back last night from Wilcox, near Erie, Pa, whither he went a few days since after some lake salmon suffort. He secured about 4,500 of the fish, but the oleaginious water in which they were carried after leaving the lake killed some 1,500 of them. The remainder were place in Pearce Run, Green's Run and Grog Run, above the three first dams in Buffaio Creek, near Wellsburg.

WASHINGTON, PA., promises to send a delegation of four or five hundred to the picnic at Gaston's Orchard on the Fourth of July. The Washington folks are working hard for Conductor Billy Brown, who is a candidate for a gold headed cane. TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE.-The following transfer of real estate was admitted to record in the office of the Clerk of the County Court, yesterday:
Deed made April 19th, 1878, by Henry
B. Caldwell and wife and others to S. Brady Caldwell, for lot No. 4, on the

What we want to know is, are we going to elebrate or not? because if we are, we want to begin to get our oration ironed out and dusted off, and i'we "ain't" we want to harvest a crop of angleworms and get ready to go a fishing.

Horse Stolen.—Some time Wednesday night a valuable four-year-old horse was stolen from Mr. E. C. McCausland who lives on the Haneytown pike, near Roney's Point. The horse is a light bay, about 14 hands high, sweeneyed slightly in the left shoulder, and is a natural
